H.E. NETEN TULKU RINPOCHE

Internationally Renowned Tibetan Master of Buddhism

His Eminence Tulku Neten Rinpoche is the 9th reincarnation of the Lama & Abbot of Jungpa Monastery in Tibet. There were sixteen renowned Arhats in India, and Neten Rinpoche's lineage can be traced back to the 11th Arhat named Lam Tran Ten Pharpa LamChung (Sanskrit name ChudaPantaka), who reincarnated many times in both India and Tibet as Mahasiddha Bodhisattvas and as one of the six Neten disciples of the Great Lama Je Tsongkhapa, named Neten Kunga Bum.

The 1st Neten Kunga Bum built the Jungpa Monastery in Lithang, Kham, Tibet. The present Neten Rinpoche was born just over a year after the passing away of the 8th Neten Rinpoche. In 1986, His Holiness the Dalai Lama graciously recognized him as the 9th reincarnated Tulku Neten Rinpoche, Lama-Abbot of the Jungpa Monastery.

H.E. Tulku Neten Rinpoche secured the highest Geshe Lharampa Degree (Ph.D in Buddhist Sutra Studies) in Sera Mey Monastic University, India and then joined the Gyumed Tantric Monastery for higher Tantric studies. He then received the advanced degree of Ngagampa (Highest degree in Tantric Studies) and taught the sanghas at the Gyumed Tantric Monastery. At that time, he also accepted the position of Discipline Master. Later on he went back and taught Dharma to sanghas at the Sera Mey Monastic University.

Since the year 2006 H.E. Tulku Neten Rinpoche has been living in Canada and completely rebuilt the Jungpa monastery in Tibet which had been previously destroyed. He is also the founder of the Jam Tse Cho Ling (Head) Dharma Centre in Toronto, Canada and the Jam Tse Cho Ling Buddhist Temple in Calgary, Canada.

H.E. Tulku Neten Rinpoche resides in Toronto. He travels extensively across the globe giving teachings and public talks to various religious and social institutions.
